

Alexandra F. Vecchio

Alexandra F. Vecchio received her Bachelor of Arts degree, Magna Cum Laude, from the University at Albany, with a major in Public Policy. She then attended Albany Law School of Union University, where she received her Juris Doctor degree.

During law school, she interned with the Edward P. Swyer Justice Center at Albany Law School, where she advocated for low-income community members in various areas of the law, including family law, social security, trusts and estates, and business entity formation. Ms. Vecchio also engaged in real estate transactions and last will drafting during an internship with Rita Bonicelli, Esq. She also completed a summer internship with the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office, where she worked on legal research and writing pertaining to criminal matters.

Ms. Vecchio's admission to the New York State Bar is currently pending as she recently passed the New York State Bar Examination in October 2023.
